

Oxford County Advertiser.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 2, 1887.

Entered as Second Class mail matter.

W. T. Jenne, Roxbury, has been appointed Justice of the Peace.

Fred M. Bartlett was appointed postmaster at Bryans' Pond, Wednesday, vice Mrs. Eliza A. Jacobs returned.

The town of Poland held a legal town meeting Saturday. A vote to abolish the school district system was carried by a large vote.

Bank notes on extra tough paper for sale at the Advertiser office. The stock of paper is almost equal to bond or parchment. Notes one cent each.

Another lady who sends us pay for her paper writes: "I saw on last week's paper that my name was on it for which I had paid and I see by reading the paper that some very real people are paying. I should think they would really be ashamed to take a paper and not pay for it to pay for it. When I can't pay I will order it stopped at once."

Do you want a book to read? If so read the one on the first page "Good Books for All." Just killed a dog that weighed over 100 lbs. by a novel by Sylvanus Cobb, Jr., and three others for only 12 cents, or ten books for one dollar. We will send any one book for 2 cents. We send the books by mail direct from the publishers and send each with the order. One and two cents stamps taken.

Capt. Dunham and wife left for Boston Wednesday of last week to stay during the winter.

Hattie Bailey left for Farmington Wednesday to visit her sister, Mrs. Sarah Farnington.

An excellent entertainment was held at the Chapel Thursday evening by the Bridgman Sisters, Grand of the New College of Oxford, consisting of select readings, humorous recitations and music.

Thanksgiving day was well observed. The evening prayer meeting was well attended.

New horse sheds are being built for the church and the old ones repaired.

George Dunham has got 100 hens to keep this winter.

Corra Rantam returned to Norway Tuesday afternoon.

The Boston 5 and 10 Cent Store, South Paris, has received a large lot of Christmas goods that will be sold at lowest prices. It will pay to call and see the goods and get prices before going elsewhere.

MEXICO.

Mrs. F. E. Reed of Auburn has closed her school in district No. 6.

Thanksgiving day three deer came into Ephraim Hamford's barn yard. Mrs. H. came to the door and they left. The deer was in the barn yard and the deer was in the barn yard.

C. Hale has put eight oxen on the Bank farm in Roxbury to haul poplar this winter.

Sam Archer from Ansonia has arrived in town and is stopping with Sewell Good. He will soon call on Sam Knobs who to take them with a Winchester. Cor.

LOVELL CENTER.

E. T. Stearns and mother have returned from a visit to Hot Springs, Ark.

Dr. Henry Russell after an absence of six years in Montana is heartily welcomed by his old friends in Lovell.

Frank and Fred Russell are home from Bowdoin, the former to return after a short vacation while the latter will begin teaching in this district on Monday next.

The Christian Circle met on Tuesday, Nov. 22, at the house of Elwell Andrews.

NORTH LOVELL.

On Thanksgiving day of thirty friends assembled at the home of Mr. H. F. Palmer, among whom were Edwin Hamilton and wife of Cape Elizabeth and W. H. Palmer, wife and son of Norway.

S. F. McDaniel has been suffering for a long time from heart disease.

Rena B. Hatch, who has been quite sick for a number of weeks, is slowly improving.

NORTH NORWAY.

A young man from Colby University, Waterville, is to teach in the Norway district, No. 11, this winter.

Lucetta Brooks will teach in No. 3.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Hurrey's reception was well attended on the eve of Nov. 18th.

Twenty-nine persons took dinner at Ed. Penley's Thanksgiving day.

W. Jenkins and sons have bought the old school-house in the Pierce district moved it home and added it to their barn as a sheep pen.

The Foster girls have returned to Auburn to work in a shoe shop.

A Reading Club has been started in this vicinity. The next meeting will be at Jacob Hill's, Dec. 24, in the eve. All interested are cordially invited.

Mrs. Christina Twichell from Oxford has been visiting at O. V. H. Clark's for the past two weeks.

C. C. Hurrey recently killed a seven months old pig that dressed 20 1/2 lbs.

PARIS HILL.

The Maine Grand Lodge of Good Templars have the recommendation of a Deputy Right Worshipful Grand Chief Templar of the Right Worshipful Grand Lodge of the World for appointment by Right Worshipful Grand Chief Templar Trumbull. Among the names mentioned for the position is that of Geo. S. Sibley, Portland.

George E. Kung has an article on "Frenzies of the United States" in the December Harper's.

The Hamilton collection of tortoise shells found at Mount Mansie in this place and says it is the "finest collection of its kind in the world and would furnish full suites for a dozen cabinets."

The Bridgman Sisters of this village will give select readings at this place on the evening of Dec. 1st.

Among the people from out of town who spent Thanksgiving in this village were the following: Dr. A. S. Thayer, Mary Thayer and Col. Lewis B. Smith of Portland; George Crocker of Bangor; William G. and Grant Harlow and Mrs. L. C. Willoughby of Dixfield; Mrs. C. Hallet of Boston.

Don't forget that the best Christmas goods are on hand at the Boston 5 and 10 Cent Store.

SOUTH WATERFORD.

Sorry not to be able to report this week that a corn packing establishment for this place in the near future is an assured fact. The people are very much in earnest and we still hope.

Roland Gory, who has been at home for nearly two weeks, having been summoned on account of the illness of his wife, has returned to Pittsburg where he is connected with the large iron manufacturing house of Jones & Laughlins.

George A. Hall and family of Cumberland Hill, spent Thanksgiving at his father's in this place.

Frank C. Shaw was home Thanksgiving from Mass. He is the nephew of Andrew Kimball at Newton Lower Falls, Mass.

Charles A. Young is home for a brief visit. His family are at Greenwood, Mass.

After an illness of several years Edward Kneeland died at his home on Saturday, Nov. 26th. The family have the sympathy of friends in this district and great affliction within a period of two weeks.

WATERFORD.

Rev. O. A. Rounds has returned from California and is with his family at Mrs. Rounds' father's. Mr. Rounds took the trip for his health but did not receive the benefit hoped for.

Warren Kneeland has bought the Hill farm of O. C. Godwin and will move on in the spring.

A. S. Haggood has been improving his front yard by grading, etc.

Miss S. W. Knight has returned from B.

WEST BETHEL.

On Monday, Nov. 28, the day after Thanksgiving, the Rev. Mr. H. H. Hurrey, of Boston, was here on a business visit.

The V. L. Society had a dance and oyster and pastry supper in the evening of Nov. 24th at George Hall which was well patronized by the members of the society and was reported to be the best time of the season. The tables were ready for supper about 7 o'clock and the ladies who arranged them have reason to feel proud of their success. There was a good case which was sold during the evening which brought $5.35. The whole time was a grand affair and the society is nearly twenty-five dollars in profit. The society intends having some other entertainments during the winter which they intend shall be first-class.

George Webber and wife have begun to keep house in the rent hired of J. F. Allen.

Charles Prescott and wife of South Paris were here and spent Thanksgiving with their aunt, Mrs. L. C. Bean.

Major Perry, who is spending a few months at Paris, was here to get her Thanksgiving dinner with her mother.

Mellen Jason has opened his mill, which proves a great success. The cattle will eat the ensilage before they will touch the best of hay.

"The Old Love," a novel by Sylvanus Cobb, Jr., and three others for only 12 cents, or ten books for one dollar. We will send any one book for 2 cents. We send the books by mail direct from the publishers and send each with the order. One and two cents stamps taken.

Do you want a book to read? If so read the one on the first page "Good Books for All." Just killed a dog that weighed over 100 lbs. by a novel by Sylvanus Cobb, Jr., and three others for only 12 cents, or ten books for one dollar. We will send any one book for 2 cents. We send the books by mail direct from the publishers and send each with the order. One and two cents stamps taken.

Capt. Dunham and wife left for Boston Wednesday of last week to stay during the winter.

Hattie Bailey left for Farmington Wednesday to visit her sister, Mrs. Sarah Farnington.

An excellent entertainment was held at the Chapel Thursday evening by the Bridgman Sisters, Grand of the New College of Oxford, consisting of select readings, humorous recitations and music.

Thanksgiving day was well observed. The evening prayer meeting was well attended.

New horse sheds are being built for the church and the old ones repaired.

George Dunham has got 100 hens to keep this winter.

Corra Rantam returned to Norway Tuesday afternoon.

The Boston 5 and 10 Cent Store, South Paris, has received a large lot of Christmas goods that will be sold at lowest prices. It will pay to call and see the goods and get prices before going elsewhere.

MEXICO.

Mrs. F. E. Reed of Auburn has closed her school in district No. 6.

Thanksgiving day three deer came into Ephraim Hamford's barn yard. Mrs. H. came to the door and they left. The deer was in the barn yard and the deer was in the barn yard.

C. Hale has put eight oxen on the Bank farm in Roxbury to haul poplar this winter.

Sam Archer from Ansonia has arrived in town and is stopping with Sewell Good. He will soon call on Sam Knobs who to take them with a Winchester. Cor.

LOVELL CENTER.

E. T. Stearns and mother have returned from a visit to Hot Springs, Ark.

Dr. Henry Russell after an absence of six years in Montana is heartily welcomed by his old friends in Lovell.

Frank and Fred Russell are home from Bowdoin, the former to return after a short vacation while the latter will begin teaching in this district on Monday next.

The Christian Circle met on Tuesday, Nov. 22, at the house of Elwell Andrews.

NORTH LOVELL.

On Thanksgiving day of thirty friends assembled at the home of Mr. H. F. Palmer, among whom were Edwin Hamilton and wife of Cape Elizabeth and W. H. Palmer, wife and son of Norway.

S. F. McDaniel has been suffering for a long time from heart disease.

Rena B. Hatch, who has been quite sick for a number of weeks, is slowly improving.

NORTH NORWAY.

A young man from Colby University, Waterville, is to teach in the Norway district, No. 11, this winter.

Lucetta Brooks will teach in No. 3.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Hurrey's reception was well attended on the eve of Nov. 18th.

Twenty-nine persons took dinner at Ed. Penley's Thanksgiving day.

W. Jenkins and sons have bought the old school-house in the Pierce district moved it home and added it to their barn as a sheep pen.

The Foster girls have returned to Auburn to work in a shoe shop.

A Reading Club has been started in this vicinity. The next meeting will be at Jacob Hill's, Dec. 24, in the eve. All interested are cordially invited.

Mrs. Christina Twichell from Oxford has been visiting at O. V. H. Clark's for the past two weeks.

C. C. Hurrey recently killed a seven months old pig that dressed 20 1/2 lbs.

PARIS HILL.

The Maine Grand Lodge of Good Templars have the recommendation of a Deputy Right Worshipful Grand Chief Templar of the Right Worshipful Grand Lodge of the World for appointment by Right Worshipful Grand Chief Templar Trumbull. Among the names mentioned for the position is that of Geo. S. Sibley, Portland.

George E. Kung has an article on "Frenzies of the United States" in the December Harper's.

The Hamilton collection of tortoise shells found at Mount Mansie in this place and says it is the "finest collection of its kind in the world and would furnish full suites for a dozen cabinets."

The Bridgman Sisters of this village will give select readings at this place on the evening of Dec. 1st.

Among the people from out of town who spent Thanksgiving in this village were the following: Dr. A. S. Thayer, Mary Thayer and Col. Lewis B. Smith of Portland; George Crocker of Bangor; William G. and Grant Harlow and Mrs. L. C. Willoughby of Dixfield; Mrs. C. Hallet of Boston.

Don't forget that the best Christmas goods are on hand at the Boston 5 and 10 Cent Store.

SOUTH WATERFORD.

Sorry not to be able to report this week that a corn packing establishment for this place in the near future is an assured fact. The people are very much in earnest and we still hope.

Roland Gory, who has been at home for nearly two weeks, having been summoned on account of the illness of his wife, has returned to Pittsburg where he is connected with the large iron manufacturing house of Jones & Laughlins.

George A. Hall and family of Cumberland Hill, spent Thanksgiving at his father's in this place.

Frank C. Shaw was home Thanksgiving from Mass. He is the nephew of Andrew Kimball at Newton Lower Falls, Mass.

Charles A. Young is home for a brief visit. His family are at Greenwood, Mass.

After an illness of several years Edward Kneeland died at his home on Saturday, Nov. 26th. The family have the sympathy of friends in this district and great affliction within a period of two weeks.

WATERFORD.

Rev. O. A. Rounds has returned from California and is with his family at Mrs. Rounds' father's. Mr. Rounds took the trip for his health but did not receive the benefit hoped for.

Warren Kneeland has bought the Hill farm of O. C. Godwin and will move on in the spring.

A. S. Haggood has been improving his front yard by grading, etc.

Miss S. W. Knight has returned from B.

THANKSGIVING WITH HER PARENTS AT SHREBORNE, N. H.

On Monday, Nov. 28, the day after Thanksgiving, the Rev. Mr. H. H. Hurrey, of Boston, was here on a business visit.

The V. L. Society had a dance and oyster and pastry supper in the evening of Nov. 24th at George Hall which was well patronized by the members of the society and was reported to be the best time of the season. The tables were ready for supper about 7 o'clock and the ladies who arranged them have reason to feel proud of their success. There was a good case which was sold during the evening which brought $5.35. The whole time was a grand affair and the society is nearly twenty-five dollars in profit. The society intends having some other entertainments during the winter which they intend shall be first-class.

George Webber and wife have begun to keep house in the rent hired of J. F. Allen.

Charles Prescott and wife of South Paris were here and spent Thanksgiving with their aunt, Mrs. L. C. Bean.

Major Perry, who is spending a few months at Paris, was here to get her Thanksgiving dinner with her mother.

Mellen Jason has opened his mill, which proves a great success. The cattle will eat the ensilage before they will touch the best of hay.

"The Old Love," a novel by Sylvanus Cobb, Jr., and three others for only 12 cents, or ten books for one dollar. We will send any one book for 2 cents. We send the books by mail direct from the publishers and send each with the order. One and two cents stamps taken.

Do you want a book to read? If so read the one on the first page "Good Books for All." Just killed a dog that weighed over 100 lbs. by a novel by Sylvanus Cobb, Jr., and three others for only 12 cents, or ten books for one dollar. We will send any one book for 2 cents. We send the books by mail direct from the publishers and send each with the order. One and two cents stamps taken.

Capt. Dunham and wife left for Boston Wednesday of last week to stay during the winter.

Hattie Bailey left for Farmington Wednesday to visit her sister, Mrs. Sarah Farnington.

An excellent entertainment was held at the Chapel Thursday evening by the Bridgman Sisters, Grand of the New College of Oxford, consisting of select readings, humorous recitations and music.

Thanksgiving day was well observed. The evening prayer meeting was well attended.

New horse sheds are being built for the church and the old ones repaired.

George Dunham has got 100 hens to keep this winter.

Corra Rantam returned to Norway Tuesday afternoon.

The Boston 5 and 10 Cent Store, South Paris, has received a large lot of Christmas goods that will be sold at lowest prices. It will pay to call and see the goods and get prices before going elsewhere.

MEXICO.

Mrs. F. E. Reed of Auburn has closed her school in district No. 6.

Thanksgiving day three deer came into Ephraim Hamford's barn yard. Mrs. H. came to the door and they left. The deer was in the barn yard and the deer was in the barn yard.

C. Hale has put eight oxen on the Bank farm in Roxbury to haul poplar this winter.

Sam Archer from Ansonia has arrived in town and is stopping with Sewell Good. He will soon call on Sam Knobs who to take them with a Winchester. Cor.

LOVELL CENTER.

E. T. Stearns and mother have returned from a visit to Hot Springs, Ark.

Dr. Henry Russell after an absence of six years in Montana is heartily welcomed by his old friends in Lovell.

Frank and Fred Russell are home from Bowdoin, the former to return after a short vacation while the latter will begin teaching in this district on Monday next.

The Christian Circle met on Tuesday, Nov. 22, at the house of Elwell Andrews.

NORTH LOVELL.

On Thanksgiving day of thirty friends assembled at the home of Mr. H. F. Palmer, among whom were Edwin Hamilton and wife of Cape Elizabeth and W. H. Palmer, wife and son of Norway.

S. F. McDaniel has been suffering for a long time from heart disease.

Rena B. Hatch, who has been quite sick for a number of weeks, is slowly improving.

NORTH NORWAY.

A young man from Colby University, Waterville, is to teach in the Norway district, No. 11, this winter.

Lucetta Brooks will teach in No. 3.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Hurrey's reception was well attended on the eve of Nov. 18th.

Twenty-nine persons took dinner at Ed. Penley's Thanksgiving day.

W. Jenkins and sons have bought the old school-house in the Pierce district moved it home and added it to their barn as a sheep pen.

The Foster girls have returned to Auburn to work in a shoe shop.

A Reading Club has been started in this vicinity. The next meeting will be at Jacob Hill's, Dec. 24, in the eve. All interested are cordially invited.

Mrs. Christina Twichell from Oxford has been visiting at O. V. H. Clark's for the past two weeks.

C. C. Hurrey recently killed a seven months old pig that dressed 20 1/2 lbs.

PARIS HILL.

The Maine Grand Lodge of Good Templars have the recommendation of a Deputy Right Worshipful Grand Chief Templar of the Right Worshipful Grand Lodge of the World for appointment by Right Worshipful Grand Chief Templar Trumbull. Among the names mentioned for the position is that of Geo. S. Sibley, Portland.

George E. Kung has an article on "Frenzies of the United States" in the December Harper's.

The Hamilton collection of tortoise shells found at Mount Mansie in this place and says it is the "finest collection of its kind in the world and would furnish full suites for a dozen cabinets."

The Bridgman Sisters of this village will give select readings at this place on the evening of Dec. 1st.

Among the people from out of town who spent Thanksgiving in this village were the following: Dr. A. S. Thayer, Mary Thayer and Col. Lewis B. Smith of Portland; George Crocker of Bangor; William G. and Grant Harlow and Mrs. L. C. Willoughby of Dixfield; Mrs. C. Hallet of Boston.

Don't forget that the best Christmas goods are on hand at the Boston 5 and 10 Cent Store.

SOUTH WATERFORD.

Sorry not to be able to report this week that a corn packing establishment for this place in the near future is an assured fact. The people are very much in earnest and we still hope.

Roland Gory, who has been at home for nearly two weeks, having been summoned on account of the illness of his wife, has returned to Pittsburg where he is connected with the large iron manufacturing house of Jones & Laughlins.

George A. Hall and family of Cumberland Hill, spent Thanksgiving at his father's in this place.

Frank C. Shaw was home Thanksgiving from Mass. He is the nephew of Andrew Kimball at Newton Lower Falls, Mass.

Charles A. Young is home for a brief visit. His family are at Greenwood, Mass.

After an illness of several years Edward Kneeland died at his home on Saturday, Nov. 26th. The family have the sympathy of friends in this district and great affliction within a period of two weeks.

WATERFORD.

Rev. O. A. Rounds has returned from California and is with his family at Mrs. Rounds' father's. Mr. Rounds took the trip for his health but did not receive the benefit hoped for.

Warren Kneeland has bought the Hill farm of O. C. Godwin and will move on in the spring.

A. S. Haggood has been improving his front yard by grading, etc.

Miss S. W. Knight has returned from B.

THANKSGIVING WITH HER PARENTS AT SHREBORNE, N. H.

On Monday, Nov. 28, the day after Thanksgiving, the Rev. Mr. H. H. Hurrey, of Boston, was here on a business visit.

The V. L. Society had a dance and oyster and pastry supper in the evening of Nov. 24th at George Hall which was well patronized by the members of the society and was reported to be the best time of the season. The tables were ready for supper about 7 o'clock and the ladies who arranged them have reason to feel proud of their success. There was a good case which was sold during the evening which brought $5.35. The whole time was a grand affair and the society is nearly twenty-five dollars in profit. The society intends having some other entertainments during the winter which they intend shall be first-class.

George Webber and wife have begun to keep house in the rent hired of J. F. Allen.

Charles Prescott and wife of South Paris were here and spent Thanksgiving with their aunt, Mrs. L. C. Bean.

Major Perry, who is spending a few months at Paris, was here to get her Thanksgiving dinner with her mother.

Mellen Jason has opened his mill, which proves a great success. The cattle will eat the ensilage before they will touch the best of hay.

"The Old Love," a novel by Sylvanus Cobb, Jr., and three others for only 12 cents, or ten books for one dollar. We will send any one book for 2 cents. We send the books by mail direct from the publishers and send each with the order. One and two cents stamps taken.

Do you want a book to read? If so read the one on the first page "Good Books for All." Just killed a dog that weighed over 100 lbs. by a novel by Sylvanus Cobb, Jr., and three others for only 12 cents, or ten books for one dollar. We will send any one book for 2 cents. We send the books by mail direct from the publishers and send each with the order. One and two cents stamps taken.

Capt. Dunham and wife left for Boston Wednesday of last week to stay during the winter.

Hattie Bailey left for Farmington Wednesday to visit her sister, Mrs. Sarah Farnington.

An excellent entertainment was held at the Chapel Thursday evening by the Bridgman Sisters, Grand of the New College of Oxford, consisting of select readings, humorous recitations and music.

Thanksgiving day was well observed. The evening prayer meeting was well attended.

New horse sheds are being built for the church and the old ones repaired.

George Dunham has got 100 hens to keep this winter.

Corra Rantam returned to Norway Tuesday afternoon.

The Boston 5 and 10 Cent Store, South Paris, has received a large lot of Christmas goods that will be sold at lowest prices. It will pay to call and see the goods and get prices before going elsewhere.

MEXICO.

Mrs. F. E. Reed of Auburn has closed her school in district No. 6.

Thanksgiving day three deer came into Ephraim Hamford's barn yard. Mrs. H. came to the door and they left. The deer was in the barn yard and the deer was in the barn yard.

C. Hale has put eight oxen on the Bank farm in Roxbury to haul poplar this winter.

Sam Archer from Ansonia has arrived in town and is stopping with Sewell Good. He will soon call on Sam Knobs who to take them with a Winchester. Cor.

LOVELL CENTER.

E. T. Stearns and mother have returned from a visit to Hot Springs, Ark.

Dr. Henry Russell after an absence of six years in Montana is heartily welcomed by his old friends in Lovell.

Frank and Fred Russell are home from Bowdoin, the former to return after a short vacation while the latter will begin teaching in this district on Monday next.

The Christian Circle met on Tuesday, Nov. 22, at the house of Elwell Andrews.

NORTH LOVELL.

[illegible]